29TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME - 17th OCTOBER 2021

My dear parishioners, the Eucharist is the source and summit of Christian life and the reception of Holy Communion is of pivotal importance to all Christians. Due to COVID 19 safety regulations and the concerns of parishioners may I kindly urge those parishioners who wish to receive communion on the tongue to please receive the Eucharist at the end of communion. I thank you all for your understanding and co-operation. Fr Leonard Caldera

PARISH NEWS

HOLY WATER Dispensers: Thank-you to the benefactors for the two (2) Holy Water Dispensers for the Cathedral and Sacred Heart Church. Your kindness is truly a blessing. Thank-you.

PARKING AT SACRED HEART CHURCH: Sacred Heart College are undergoing construction works. During school hours the Blue gates at Clare Street Entrance will be closed to vehicles to ensure safety of students. Parishioners attending weekday Masses at Sacred Heart Church will be required to park off site. On Saturday and Sunday the carpark will be opened with limited car spaces with signs and bollards on where to park safely. Sacred Heart College apologies for the inconvenience and thanks you for your patience.

NEW CATHEDRAL GARDEN: The garden at the Cathedral has had a make over. Thank-you to everyone who has been involved.

CATHEDRAL RESTORATION: All reports indicate the project is going well.

The Knights of the Southern Cross in Tasmania has selected the week commencing Sunday 17 through to Sunday 24 October for a concerted week of prayer for vocations throughout the Archdiocese.

WHAT WE REQUEST:

Those participating in Tasmania are asked to say the special prayer on each day of the week between Sunday 17 to Sunday 24 October.

THE PRAYER:

"Heavenly Father, you know the faith, courage and generosity of your people throughout Australia including the men and women serving at home and overseas with the Australian Defence Force. Please provide your people in Australia with sufficient Priests, Deacons and Religious to meet their needs and be with them always as they endeavour to meet the challenges of their daily lives. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son. Amen."

WEEKDAY MASSES: All weekday Masses at St Mary's Cathedral will be celebrated in the Cathedral Crypt while the restoration works are being completed in the Cathedral. Access to the Crypt will be through the Cathedral Centre using the Cathedral Centre external door.

There will be no Sacrament of Reconciliation on Fridays.

St Mary's Cathedral will be closed Monday to Friday during the time of the Restoration Work. For more information please contact the Parish office.

Important Announcement for EVERYONE attending churches for Mass.

It is MANDATORY for every person 16 years of age or older who enters the Sacred Heart Church, the Cathedral and Cathedral Centre for any reason is required to provide their information for contact tracing using the Free Check in TAS app or by the written visitor's register. This is a direction from Tasmania Government. Non compliance may result in a fine.

The 15 promises of the Virgin Mary to those who pray the Rosary

The Blessed Virgin Mary made these promises to Saint Dominic and to all who follow that "Whatever you ask in the Rosary will be granted."

1. Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armour against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. The Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire for eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall not perish.
6. Whoever shall recite the Rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries shall never be conquered by misfortune. God will not chastise him in His justice, he shall not perish by an unprovided death; if he be just, he shall remain in the grace of God, and become worthy of eternal life.
7. Whoever shall have a true devotion for the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
8. Those who are faithful to recite the Rosary shall have during their life and at their death the light of God and the plenitude of His graces; at the moment of death, they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
9. I shall deliver from Purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in Heaven.
11. You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary.
12. All those who propagate the Holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
14. All who recite the Rosary are my sons and daughters, and brothers and sisters of my only Son Jesus Christ.
15. Devotion of my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

Prayer of the Synod
Adsumus Sancte Spiritus

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

READINGS OF THE DAY—29th SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading Isaiah 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.

If he offers his life in atonement,
he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life
and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.
His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content.
By his sufferings shall my servant justify many,
taking their faults on himself.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 32:4-5;18-20;22 R. v22

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love.
2. The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love.
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine
3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you.

Second Reading Hebrews 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all.
Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.' When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them: 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus – The Price of Our Freedom!

In our Gospel today, (Mk 10:35-45) Jesus jolts His closest followers with the reality of His kingdom. Unlike all earthly empires, the Kingdom of God is not based on power. It is based on loving obedience.

To be great in His kingdom is to minister to others, because He did not come to be ministered to but to minister to all of humanity by dying on the Cross. The Son of Man, who is the Son of God, came in obedience to His Father to give His life as a ransom for us. His mission was to buy us back out of slavery to sin by paying our ransom with the infinite value of His very life given for us.

In the face of such amazing love we can only obey Him and try to love God and our neighbours as He has first loved us.
